

To further improve our services, the Seychelles National Meteorological Services (SNMS) is conducting a survey on the quality and quantity of information provided to the general public. Please fill in one of our questionnaire.

Means of receiving forecasts

Which are your primary means for obtaining weather information? (multiple answers possible.)

- Newspaper
- Radio (AM)
- Radio (FM)
- Television
- Fax
- Directly from a forecaster at the NMS
- Internet- weather page
- Other (Specify)

General Need of forecasts

When do you mostly need weather information?

- Daily
- Weekdays
- Weekend
- Before/During the holidays
- Never

Reliability

How reliable do you think the weather information provided by the NMS is?

- Very Reliable
- Reliable
- Less Reliable
- Not Reliable

Type of forecasts

Which period of forecast is most useful to you?

- Today
- Tonight
- Tomorrow
- Four-day
- General Outlook
- Seasonal Outlook
- None especially
- Other (Please specify)

Television Presentation

How do you find the weather forecast on television?

- Too long
- Too short
- Fine, the way it is now

Do you think the forecast for destinations should be included in the television presentation?

- Yes
 No

Do you think Television Presentation should be done in English and French more often?

- Yes
 No

Warning

In case of warning

How do you get to hear about it?

- Radio
 Television
 CNN or Other

Do you usually understand the warning?

- Yes
 No

Do you call the Meteorological Office for confirmation?

- Yes
 No

Did you take all the advice given seriously?

- Yes
 No

Improvements

Which improvement would you like to see in your weather forecast? (multiple answers possible)

- Quality and accuracy of forecasts should be improved
 Simplify presentation
 Improve on the graphics to make you better understand
 Presentation of the forecast should be more at ease/relaxed
 Improve presentation of weathercasters
 More weather information relevant to specific interests or job
 More information about the services provided by the NMS

Comments