Delta Green Key Eco-Rating Program

As a business operating in communities across Canada, Delta hotels recognizes and respects its corporate social responsibility to make them stronger & better places to live.

As a quality organization, this is a key focus for our company.

To that end, Delta Hotels will considers the environment in its decision-making, striving to take actions that will not negatively impact the environment and that will go beyond meeting existing regulations & legislation.

As an indication of its commitment, Delta Hotels partners with Hotel Association of Canada. All of its hotel and resorts are audited and rated by the association's well-established & well-regarded Green Key Eco-Rating Program, a program that recognizes companies committed to improving their environmental performance.

The Program's broad matrix of questions evaluates Delta's hotels & resorts in nine areas of sustainable hotel operations:

- energy conservation
- water conservation
- solid waste management
- hazardous waste management
- indoor air quality
- community outreach
- building infrastructure
- land use
- environmental management

A complete list of hotel ratings can be found @ www.deltahotels.com/en/about/community

Whether it's trough our nationwide "Adopt a Shelter" initiative, in which lightly uses furniture and other goods are donated to local women's shelters, the chain wide recycling and towel and sheet reuse programs, the move towards using high-efficiency compact fluorescent bulbs or the diversion of more and more organic waste, all our actions are focused on minimizing our footprint & improving conversation efforts.

As a quality organization, Delta Hotels will continue to listen to guests, employees, industry & community partners & seek ways in which to improve & build upon our "green" activities.

What WE DO @ DELTA CENTRE VILLE:

- Recycling program with sorting & recycling waste such as: office paper, cardboard, frying oil & grease, batteries,
- Printer cartridges, coat-hangers from dry-cleaning
- Blue recycling boxes in place in all meetings, offices, kitchens, F&B outlets
- Low-flow water-saving showerheads in all guestrooms
- Replacement of bulbs with lower wattage & compact fluorescent bulbs
- Shut off lights & turn back temperatures after guest leaves
- Optional towel & sheet change program for the guestrooms
- Environment friendly & phosphate-free chemicals & detergents in use in laundry & housekeeping

MONTREAL AROUND DELTA CENTRE-VILLE

Recreation and tourist attractions in our city:

Old Montreal

2.5-km-long recreational and tourist park and offers a variety of outdoor activities for every taste, from cruises to excursions, exhibitions, events and entertainment. In winter, you can skate on the outdoor artificial rink to really make the most of the season.

Notre-Dame Basilica

Built between 1824 and 1829, the magnificent interior decor, in sculpted wood, paint and gold leaf and the boldly modern design of the Notre-Dame du Sacré-Coeur Chapel. In the evening a sound and light show presents the founding of Montreal and the Notre-Dame Basilica. State-of-the-art multimedia techniques highlight the Basilica's exceptional works of art and bring to life its cultural, architectural and spiritual heritage.

Pointe-à-Callière (Montreal Museum of Archaeology and History)

Dig deep into the world of Montreal's history and archaeology at this intriguing attraction. Built on the site where colonization took place in 1642, the museum and interpretive center takes visitors through the various stages of Montreal's history through fascinating video presentations and interactive tours.

Marché Bonsecours (Bonsecours Market)

Located in Old Montreal, the neoclassical structure of Marché Bonsecours is reminiscent of Europe, most notable being the silver dome that beckons the eyes of thousands of visitors every day. Built in the mid-1800s, it once existed as City Hall and after as a public market. Today it houses exhibition space, boutiques and cafés.

Montreal Casino

The Casino de Montréal offers over 3,060 slot machines, 120 gaming tables and a dazzling atmosphere. The Casino is also home to the Cabaret, a spectacular 500-seat performance hall dedicated to world-class variety shows, and four restaurants sure to suit every taste, from a quick snack to an exquisite gourmet experience.

Bell Center

The Bell Center is the home of the Montreal Canadiens Hockey Club. It has been designed to seat more than 21,000 sports enthusiasts. It is also a venue for rock concerts, classical music performances and family entertainment.

Palais des congrès

MONTREAL AROUND DELTA CENTRE-VILLE (continued)

Musée des Beaux-Arts

One of Canada's oldest art museums, Musée des Beaux Arts is home to a vast array of works from pre-Columbian times to the present and was the first Canadian museum dedicated to visual art. In the permanent collection witness stunning contemporary Canadian art or view pieces by Picasso, Monet, or Renoir.

The Montreal Biodome

Four natural ecosystems create an environmental museum inside the Biodome. Rocky landscapes, tumbling waterfalls and majestic trees are home to birds, mammals and fish that fly, climb and swim through their natural habitats: the tropical forest, the Laurentian forest, the St. Lawrence Marine Ecosystem and the polar world.

Jardin Botanique

Located in Olympic Park across from the stadium, a walk through these beautiful gardens makes for a worthwhile trip. Lose yourself in the relaxing powers of the Chinese and Japanese gardens or head to the Tree House and learn fascinating facts about a vast array of trees.

DISTANCE TO:

Palais des Congrès de Montréal : 2 short walking blocks or 7 minutes

Via Rail Central Station: One short walking block

Place Bonaventure: across from the hotel

Airport: 20 minutes from Pierre Elliott Trudeau International Airport

Delta Centre-Ville
